Sedalia Chamber of Commerce

The Chamber of Commerce has a monthly breakfast on the second Thursday of each month at 7:30 and since SVAA is a member anyone of our members may attend the breakfast. This is an opportunity for you to network with some of the local businesses. Linda Hoover and Myrna Ragar will be attending the September meeting.

The Chamber of Commerce is also sponsoring an expo on Oct. 29th called Biz, Sips & Bites. We have reserved a booth for SVAA members to connect with the community and display some of their work. If you wish to participate in this event, please contact Linda Hoover at 660-238-6242 or hoovers@iland.net.

A Taste of Market

The Farmer's Market A Taste of Market fund raiser was a moderate success. A few of the participating members did make some sales. Becky King was kept busy painting faces. Chester Lux raffled off some wind chimes and a leather hat.

NEW BUSINESS

Liberty Center

The Liberty Center has been working on improving the lighting in the lobby. They have also reserved an area in the lobby for SVAA members to hang artwork, but it still needs more work before it is ready for us to use.

Marlis Wise has stepped down as our representative on the Liberty Center Board of Directors. Faith Bemiss will be our new representative and SVAA will support her position with a $500 donation to be given in $100 increments over the next 2- and one-half years.

Faith reported that the Liberty Center is currently working on a capital campaign to finish the area upstairs into rooms that could be used for meetings or classes. Faith will be attending the next meeting of the board on September 10th and give us a report at our next meeting in October.

Paul Allen has a show featuring his series of angel paintings in the Liberty Center galleries. The reception will be September 19th from 5-7 pm.

Christmas in October Art Sale

The Christmas in October sale will be held in the lobby of the Liberty Center on October 18th from 4-8 pm and 19th from 10 am – 4pm. The cost for participants is $10 for members and $20 for non-members, which will be used by SVAA for advertising. Also, the Liberty Center is to receive 20% of all sales. SVAA will provide display panels to hang artwork.

Christmas Dinner

This year's Christmas dinner will be at the Little Bighorn restaurant. Myrna Ragar is finalizing the plans for the dinner.

Meeting Programs

October 3rd – Kansas City Artists, Inc. for a presentation on Marketing Art

November 7th – Planning Meeting

December – Christmas Dinner

Respectfully submitted by Glenda Miller.

President's Challenge for 2019

Linda Hoover is challenging us to “step up our game” in supporting each other by looking for someone in the club that you can help with their art in some way. Some examples are helping to promote their work, providing supplies or equipment, or offering a tip on solving an art problem. Linda mentioned that there were a couple or people that offered to treat other members to the Christmas Dinner.

Special Note: Diane Burnett, Director of the Hayden Liberty Center, has proposed inviting local needle workers to the Liberty Center to sit and work on their projects. This would be a very informal gathering where people could share their knowledge with others that have the same interest and meet new friends. This gathering would be open to any type of needle work examples would include knitting, crocheting, tatting, needlepoint, and embroidery. Before meeting times can be setup, we need to know how many people are interested in participating. Please email me at millerscaveart@gmail.com or call 660-458-6575 and share this information with anyone that might be interested.
